SHIPPING NEWS FRO

LOW BIDS PRODUCE CHARTER DEADLOCK

Shippers Try to Hold Out in Order to Depress Cargo Quotations.

The ship charter market is in a stat ded activity, with owners and deadlocked over rates, but the nd of the next few weeks ought to be ermined before Saturday. As the sithave lowered their bids for are unwilling to close business.

If further prompt orders come into the market in the next week there should be renewed chartering at rates prevaling recently, but if shippers can hold off for a time longer they may be able to depress quotations. The owners have been encouraged by the advance in exchange and the talk of a loan to Germany, saying that both should materially increase cargo movement, but against this it is pointed out that the holiday season is a regularly dull one for shipping.

The general decline in bids for ships for full cargoes to Europe is one to two cents a hundred pounds, and as evidence of the immediate state of the grain cents a nundred pointed, and as evidence of the immediate state of the grain trade berth or part cargo rates have declined sharply, as much as one shifting a quarter to United Kingdom ports.

No fixtures are reported for sugar movement, although brokers feel that it is only a matter of days when charters will be done for February loading in Cuba for United Kingdom voyages. Shippers are quoting 20 shillings to 20 shillings 6 pence a ton, but owners are holding out for 21 to 22 shillings.

The steady demand for small ships on the time charter basis for West Indies voyages remains unchanged; a limited demand is evidenced for larger steamers for round trips to east and west coast South America, for which there have been a few fixtures recently at 90 to 55 cents a ton, with deliveries north of Hatteras. The transatiantic demand remains nil.

AMERICA HEADS WORLD IN IDLE SHIP TONNAGE

nparison with idle Shipping Board nnage, it is shown by the report for MAILS FOR SOUTH AND CENthe fiscal year 1922, of D. B. Carson, the fiscal year 1922, of D. B. Carson, Commissioner of Nevigation. Of the 5,762,205 tons laid up in the United States 4,967,577 belong to the Shipping Board and 794,623 to private owners. The board had 64.6 per cent. of its tonnage did and the owners 3.5 per cent. That the depression in shipping has not been confined to the United States is shown by the following statement of die tonnage in the principal maritime countries as of June 30, 1822:

ENGLISH CITY ELECTS BROOKLYN MAN MAYOR

Bookbinder Cedric Chivers to Head Borough of Bath.

Cedric Chivers, who thirty years ago opened a small bookbindery in Brooklyn and is now the head of the Chivers Bookbindery Company at 911 Atlantic avenue, one of the largest establishments of its kind in this country, has been elected Mayor of the Borough of Bath, in Eng-land.

Mayor of the Borough of Bath, in England.

Brother members of the Hamilton Club on Remsen street in Brooklyn know Chivere as a quiet, retiring man, apparently much averse to spotlight activities. In Bath, however, according to newspaper articles, Chivers is considered to have a dynamic personality. He is an advocate of liberalism, supported Lloyd George, and, unlike the former Premier, twon by a handsome margin. Chivers stopped at the Hamilton Club for saveral weeks lest September, during which time he inspected his bookbindery. He is judged to be between 55 and 69, years of age, small and trimly built. He has crossed the ocean many times, and fiftesen yearsh ago built the present three story structure on Atlantic avenue. Frequently called upon during his campaign for Mayor to state his stand on prohibition or "the drinking water question," he stated he is opposed to it, and declared it a failure in the United States.

CHARLES W. SCHWALBE

Charles W. Schwalbe, age 67. for-merly Commissioner of the Staten Island Bureau of Elections, was found dead of asphyziation yesterday afternoon in his apartment at 7 Cottage place, Port Richmond. Mr. Schwaibe retired late Saturday night and was found by a neighbor who went to call him. A gas stove was burning in the room. In December, 1920, Mr. Schwaibe's wife was burned to death in their home when her dress caught fre.

Mr. Schwalbe for ten years was district deputy of the Foresters of America and he was active in the organisation of the Moose and Eagle lodges. He was a member also of the Elks, the Royal Arcanum and the Woodmen of the Workl. He leaves a son.
